Birthplace of Birmingham City Football Club (haiku)

Players in the choir
Football is a religion
Birthplace of the Blues.

---

True worshippers at St Andrews will know that the Blues began at Holy trinity Church when members of the choir formed a cricket team in 1871. To keep fit over the winter the cricketers decided to try the new sport of Association Football and, in 1875, became known as Small Heath Alliance Football Club. In 1888 they were renamed Small Heath and Birmingham City in 1943.
