

NEW STREET - CORPORATION STREET (AREA C)

SIMON FELTON

The junction of New Street and Corporation Street adjacent to the bottom of The Ramp is a key Node in Birmingham city centre with its connection of two of the main streets in Birmingham as well as connection to The Ramp. The Ramp is a remanent of the 1960s rebuilding of Birmingham and is now a main thoroughfare connecting to Grand Central shopping centre, formerly The Pallasades and before that The Birmingham Shopping Centre (<https://www.birminghammail.co.uk/news/nostalgia/ode-ramp-birmingham-centre-universe-23348437>) as well as hosting a popular McDonalds. The Ramp in its history saw The Danish Centre as well as Newt and Cucumber pub but has remained a popular landmark as well as path in the city.

© Simon Felton

31st December 2023