

HARBORNE WALKWAY (AREA 5)

JACKIE HODGSON

---

A friend introduced me to Harborne Walkway a few years ago and for me, it's a hidden gem. Adults, children, dogs, mobility scooters, bikes, pushchairs, walking, running, chatting, silent - all here, in all combinations. Lockdown strolls, cherished moments with friends, a feeling of being away from the city. An interesting route to walk into the centre of Birmingham, picking wild garlic along the way, past allotments, grand properties, scrambling slopes, crunchy leaves, tube tunnels, emerging back into the city in Summerfield Park and Icknield Port Road.
