

PAUL BARTLETT

My return walk has a slightly differing route and emphasis to my other photo essay. This is via snow leaving clues to who or what has used the paths, as each shoe, boot, paw, bird foot, bicycle, or car etc, leaves its mark.

1. Window view from Midlands Arts Centre of adjoining courtyard and paths into Cannon Hill Park.
 2. Looking across Boating Pool, Cannon Hill Park, at the path I will initially follow.
 3. Looking back at Mac along the same path.
 4. Sign post showing path location related to Mac, River Rea Walkway etc.
 5. Further along the River Rea Walkway en route to leaving Cannon Hill Park.
 6. Short cut through woods by Holders Lane.
 7. Approaching path across Highbury Park.
 8. Closer view of clues to previous traffic along the same path.
 9. Meeting of paths in Highbury Park.
 10. Back home: Wheelers Lane, Kings Heath.
