

THE PIECE HALL (AREA C)

JIM SOUPER

The Piece Hall, the oldest remaining Georgian cloth hall in the world, opened on New Year's Day 1779. The 'piece' refers to the 30-yard lengths of woollen cloth sold in what was a public market.

The images shown here are:

1. Viewed from Beacon Hill
2. North Gate
3. East Gate (long view)
4. East Gate (close view)
5. South Gate
6. South Gate (detail)
7. West Gate
8. West Gate (detail)

Further information:

<https://www.visitcalderdale.com/see-and-do/attractions/the-piece-hall/>

© Jim Souper

4th September 2023